

Taking ToP Virtual

- I. what would move it forward
 - A. try to create a course -- ToP and technology
 - 1. creating course would get us to ask questions
 - a. do as webinar
 - B. creating an online Top facilitation tool with our name on it
 - 1. ways to share cost
 - C. look at research on virtual tools
 - 1. online stuff on webinars
 - D. identify what ToP has to offer electronic meetings
 - 1.
 - E. have tool as part of a course
 - F. teach using distance learning
- II. why
 - A. keep young people involved
 - B. Gordon has a group that only uses electronic
- III. electronic meeting tools
 - A. electronic meeting systems
 - 1. tremendous amount of data
 - a. could have fewer questions
 - 2. ToP brings together quickly
 - a. GroupMind has "idea sets" tool
 - 3. GroupMind has a tool for finding common words
 - a. still categories and common words
- IV. differences in virtual and f2f
 - A. longer design
 - B. can't see people
 - C. learning how to use website
 - D. can't get people in room for 8 hours
 - E. redesigning processes to work within virtual limitations
 - F. building trust is more challenging
 - 1. build in relationship building pieces
 - 2. easy to lose

G.

V. outline for a course as and end result

A. use the tool to facilitate ourselves virtually first

VI. some people are already using ToP virtually

VII. spend time with grandchildren to explore how they think

VIII. getting to the essence of ToP

A. how it morphs when used in a different medium

1. the universal truths

a. how people process information

IX. play with it more

A. reflect

B. learnings

C. find essence from reflection